

VINTAGE 2024

Reviewed by Stephan Reinhardt, 6th of November 2025, The Wine Advocate

In the end, it is always the work in the vineyard that determines the quality of a vintage in the individual wineries and ensures special, exceptional wines. Without all these measures, which have been taken since 2006 and continuously developed and adapted to the challenges of each vintage, Eva Fricke would not have been able to produce such a great collection, which seamlessly follows on from the magnificent wines of recent years. Outstanding in 2024 are the Rieslings from Lorchhäuser Seligmacher and Lorcher Schlossberg, as well as the Eltville Collection Dry. Still on its way, as always late, is the Lorcher Krone, which should be enjoyed from a Burgundy glass.

Sweetness: medium-dry

Variety: Riesling

The 2024 Lorchhäuser Seligmacher Riesling is very delicate and crystalline in its pure, smoky, cool and fresh slate nose, which also incorporates refreshing citrus quartzite notes. Round and elegant on the palate, with delicate, crystalline acidity, this is a dense but elegant, precise, very serious, intense and long-lasting Rheingau Riesling with a stimulatingly salty finish and, once again, savory lime freshness. This is superb, a picture-book 2024 Rheingau Riesling. 11.5% stated alcohol. Natural cork. Tasted at the domaine in August 2025.

From old Rheingau genetics planted in 1969 (two-thirds) and 1970-1971 (one-third) on shell limestone soils, the 2024 Eltville Collection Dry is deep, pure, intense and elegant on the complex, expressive, very substantial nose. Full-bodied and creamy on the palate, this is an intense, textural and persistently saline Riesling with a stimulatingly lemony finish. It has a very different texture compared to the Kiedrich and Lorcher crus. This has great aging potential. 12.5% stated alcohol. Natural cork. Tasted at the domaine in August 2025.

Stephan Reinhardt	Nov 06, 2025	November 2025 Week 1

The 2024 Rheingau Riesling Trocken Mélange includes 25% of the massal selection plantations from the Eltville Mönchhanach, the once prestigious grand cru of Schloss Eltz that is still based on the original soils. The other plantations are also from original plots, so the 2024 Mélange can be seen as the second selection of the Eltville Collection. The nose is deep, elegant and citric, representing the weathered limestone of the terroir and giving a vibrantly fresh expression. Elegant and refined on the palate, this is a lush, round, fresh and savory, very elegant and refined Riesling with a pretty specific character. It is quite accessible already yet worth cellaring. 12.5% stated alcohol. Natural cork. Tasted at the domaine in August 2025.
